

STAY

Best (and worst) new luxury hotels of 2018, according to LTI

Maureen O'Hare, CNN • Updated 21st December 2018

7/15

9. Royal Champagne, Champagne Region (France): LTI says it "has been won over by the extra special location of the Royal Champagne -- which has just 49 rooms, an excellent restaurant and an exceptional spa that overlooks the vines. It's worth noting that the four corner rooms give panoramic views and extra privacy."

Courtesy Royal Champagne

Here are the top 15 new luxury hotels to make the cut:

1. Kudadoo Private Island, Maldives
2. Joali, Maldives
3. Amanyangyun, Shanghai
4. Shinta Mani Wild, Cambodia
5. Zuri, Zanzibar
6. Chable Maroma, Mexico
7. Rosewood Luang Prabang, Laos
8. Capella Ubud, Bali
9. Royal Champagne, Champillon
10. Como Uma Canggu, Bali
11. Solaz, Los Cabos
12. The Murray, Hong Kong
13. Nobu Hotel, Marbella
14. Six Senses, Fiji
15. Hotel Gloria de Sant Jaume, Mallorca